[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

What "Mexicanization" Means

New Orleans, June 11.—A Laredo special [says a] courier brought news yesterday to the [effect] that Col Alegria and 150 government [troops] attacked 200 revolutionists under Gar[illegible] [Can]ales at a place called Los Fliron[illegible] [illegible] miles north of New Laredo and after a [short] engagement completely routed them [tak]ing many prisoners and capturing arms [illegible]. Many are reported killed and [wo]unded on both sides, but details are want[ing]. There was great rejoicing in New Laredo [on] receipt of the news.

New York "Times" on the Oregon Election.

New York, June 8.—The Times in an edi[torial s]ays: The election of a United States [senator in] place of Mitchell will devolve on [the legi]slature which has just been elected in [Oregon.] Mitchell desired to be his own suc[cessor] and his friends were rather more in[terested in no]minating candidates for the legis[lature] who would vote for Mitchell than for [those] who would bring out the full Re[publican v]ote of their districts. As a natural [consequen]ce, a legislature with a Democratic [majority h]as been elected. Mitchell some [time ago] ostentatiously identified himself with [illegible] were more obviously in the [interest of] Jay Gould than of the state which [he represe]nted. Oregon having been com[pelled to ch]oose between Mitchell and a Dem[ocrat has] preferred the latter alternative and [illegible] there will be one Republi[can illegible] because the party machine in Oregon [illegible] to further the ends of selfish [and un]scrupulous political schemers. A moral [may] be found for the instruction of [the Repu]blican party of the state of New [York in] what is at once a victory and a de[feat] [illegible] in Oregon.

[illegible] a Contract to Impeach Hayes

[illegible] 11.—A Washington special [illegible] intimated last night about [illegible] the house judiciary committee [illegible] title can be affirmed as [illegible] judiciary committee met to [illegible] take no action in the mat[ter illegible] developments foreshadowed [illegible] committee. Gen Butler has [illegible] of making out a case of [illegible] against Hayes, and he is [illegible] committee making any [illegible] either way upon the sub[ject illegible] case to stand as it is.

[illegible] Involves Hayes.

[illegible] June 11.—Specials agree that [illegible] is not a very reputable hanger [illegible], but that so far nothing [illegible] to involve the president. [illegible] evidence simply showed that [illegible] few southern Democrats [illegible] offices went to the ex[illegible] to send a half rate [illegible] gratuitous suggestions as to [illegible] it was placed in evidence that [illegible] know of the dispatch until [illegible] had appointed Baker as se[illegible]

This state[illegible] with Butler's public acts and [illegible] indicates that he intends [illegible] to create excitement in the next [illegible] He will probably undertake to [illegible] ways: first through the Potter [illegible] and second through the judiciary [illegible] of which he is a member. In the [illegible] will undoubtedly press [illegible] Stanley Matthews and endeavor [illegible] a conflict between the two [illegible] report said to be favored by a [illegible] judiciary committee is a dec[illegible] not the purpose of the Pot[ter illegible] to assail the presidential [illegible] and Knott are said to be trying [illegible] report, and Butler says he has [illegible] sensational side of the story.

THE POTTER INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The committee [illegible] [illegible] Matthews duties as senator and that there would be every disposition on the part of the committee to meet his convenience [illegible]

At the suggestion of Cox the whole subject was laid over for the present.

James E Anderson was recalled and questioned by Cox relative to the appointment of his brother [illegible]. Witness stated that his brother was appointed [illegible] Smith [illegible] clerk in the treasury department and still retained his position.

Boulds Baker first entered the postoffice department October [illegible] [illegible] administration [illegible]. The names of parties recommending his appointment were [illegible] John [illegible] representatives Throckmorton and Culberson. Baker continued in that position until April 1st 187[illegible] when he was dismissed and on April 1 18[illegible] at the instance of the parties first recommending his appointment and other[s] he was appointed special agent at $1[illegible] per annum and $[illegible] per diem.

[illegible], deputy sixth auditor of the treasury department, recalled, said in reply to a question by Cox that the salary of Boulds Baker was paid strictly in accordance with authority given in the revised statutes. Baker was one of sixty special agents. Recommendations for the appointment of George Howard assistant clerk to the electoral commission were signed by Senator Hoar and others. The recommendations were based upon Howard's efficient service in compiling a volume known as Count of the Electoral Vote. Recess.

Ex Representative C B Darrell was sworn and after a long statement with reference to many applicants for the position of collector of customs testified that Matthews after he learned that the president did not intend appointing Gov Packard to the position, urged his Darrell's appointment, that James E Anderson's influence with Senator Matthews helped to secure his support. Matthews saw the president several times on the subject, and until the appointment of Smith thought the chances for Darrell's appointment good.

Anderson after numerous corrections in his way of telling it, informed the committee that he had given Gen Smith a letter stating that he would withdraw all claims if his brother was appointed to a position in the Baltimore custom house. He had not thought of this the other day. He identified a letter from himself to Lieut Gov Antoine written from Clinton La Sept 3 1876 stating that the negroes did not register when the lists [illegible] were first opened and the reason was that the whites were keeping them in ignorance; that he had been counteracting this and organizing the party and [illegible] becoming obnoxious to the Democrats who would have bulldozed and killed him (Anderson) except that they had been told that he was sent there for the express purpose of being killed and made into political capital, and so he was safe. They would send to Antoine a solemn protest against appointing any one else for fear of getting a Packard man. The writer urged him not to displace Sheriff Monahan who was an excellent gentleman. Witness in explanation of the letter said at the time he wrote it he believed what he stated, getting his facts from Republicans, and witness conferred with Kellogg and Republican officials at New Orleans previous to the elections and was the author of the ingenious scheme to let the Democrats vote and to have no Republicans vote in his parish, which was adopted by the Republicans.

Another Setback for Potter.

The house judiciary committee to day by a vote of eight against one, decided to report a resolution asserting in substance that the forty fourth congress was a properly constituted body to count the votes and declare the result of the presidential election and no subsequent congress has the power to revise action thus taken nor can congress confer powers upon the supreme court or upon any other tribunal to reopen questions which have thus been settled. The committee meet to morrow to consider the preamble to the resolution. The vote was as follows in favor of the resolution: Democrats—Harris, Hartridge, Stenger, McMahon, Culberson; Republicans—Frye, Conger, Lapham. Knott, chairman, dissented. Butler, Republican, and Lynde, Democrat, absent.

Potter to Matthews

WASHINGTON June 11.—The following is the text of the letter of Chairman Potter to Senator Matthews, delivered with the subpena:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON June 10 1878.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst declining to accept the invitation of the committee of investigation etc of the house of representatives to appear before the committee, but they have not felt at liberty to dispense with your attendance and have directed that a subpena be issued to you by a resolution of which I enclose you a copy; but there is no purpose of requiring your attendance at a time that may interfere with your official duties as a senator and there will be on the part of the committee every disposition to meet your convenience in respect to the time of your attendance. I have the honor to be very respectfully your obedient servant,

What Spoiled the Prospects in Union

[From M Baker's La Grande Gazette.]

Three weeks ago the whole or nearly the whole Republican ticket would have been elected, but Ben Simpson and C P Crandall came up here from Portland, went directly to the Sentinel office and held secret counsel with E S McComas the Democratic editor of that paper. Crandall ostensibly looking after a stock ranch and Simpson looking after land matters connected with the duties of the office of surveyor general. Immediately thereafter McComas bolting the Democratic ticket the people came to the conclusion how justly we are not prepared to say, that those two very knowing gentlemen from Portland had bought Mc with cash, and the result was a perfect uniting of the Democratic forces and the election of the Democratic ticket.

In the future if those Portland and Salem would be wiseacres defunct politicians and chronic place hunters will stay at home and attend to their own business, and let the people of Eastern Oregon attend to theirs which they are amply able and competent to do, it will be very much to the interest of the Republican party and to the credit of the defuncts.

Jerry Black Takes no Stock in It

[Philadelphia Special to Chicago Tribune.]

Judge Jeremiah S Black was interviewed here to day on the investigation now going on at Washington into the frauds of 1876. It was easy to see that he was under restraint in this part of his chat arising perhaps out of a past or present professional connection with the subject. He said: I take no stock in the prospect of turning out Hayes by quo warranto. No doubt Hayes got the presidency by means of a fraud but he got it and has it. It was conceded to him by the house of representatives which ought to have withheld it from him. Possession under such circumstances is title to every legal intent and purpose. Mr Hayes is president for four years unless his term shall be abridged by impeachment, resignation or death.

The Constitutional Point at Issue

[From the Boston Advertiser.]

There is a studied determination to put out of sight the truth—which serious men of all parties understood a year ago—that the electoral commission [illegible]. The rest of the horses were taken and the stage gutted. [illegible] passenger gave the alarm along the road and the settlers are all coming in here. The road is all stopped from here to the Owyhee. By inquiry at the stage office we learn that the stage contained several boxes of arms and ammunition for parties in Idaho.

CONGRESSIONAL.

House.

WASHINGTON, June 11

The committee refused to increase the appropriation for the Cincinnati custom house. The Evansville and Grand Rapids government buildings appropriations were increased, Atkins stating the house had indicated that it desired to finish all the nearly completed buildings. The increase for the St Louis custom house from $300 000 to $400 000 was rejected.

The committee rose and the house took recess and will consider the usual committee's reports in the evening.

Programme of the Congress

BERLIN June 11.—The congress will be opened by Prince Bismarck as president by submitting his memorandum of points or resume of the subjects to be treated directly by the plenipotentiaries. LONDON, June 11.—Over twenty thousand cotton operatives in mass meeting at Blackburn to day resolved to continue the strike.

The German Liberals' Programme

BERLIN, June 11.—Leaders of the national liberal party are here for consultation to determine on a course of action. They believe Prince Bismarck had determined upon a dissolution of the reichstag even before Nobeling's attempt to kill the emperor, or that he would at least have reconvened the reichstag and ascertained the disposition of that body. Their war cry will be like that of the French republicans in the contest with the De Broglie ministry—the return of the present liberal members.

Heat, Sound and Electricity

Two pieces of charcoal heated to a white heat are plunged into mercury; they are then placed in a glass tube and pressed end to end making a part of an electric circuit. If a telephone is introduced in the circuit and a sound is sent through the two pieces of charcoal it comes out at the end of the circuit greatly increased in volume. Heat, light, sound and electricity are supposed by many physicists to be interconvertible. The probabilities are that we have here a conversion of electricity into sound.

Polite Fictions

[Punch May 18.]

Mrs Brown—Dear me, Mrs Jones, are those tall young ladies really yours? I had no idea you had daughters grown up.

Mrs Jones (who is still possessed of considerable [illegible] attractions)—Oh yes! I was married at fifteen you know. And is that young gentleman really yours, [illegible]?

The Regular Suicide

SAN FRANCISCO June 11.—John C Cumming, residing at 110 Stevenson street, was formerly a clerk in the employ of the California Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company. Recently he has been out of employment and [illegible] in bad circumstances. This morning after breakfast his wife asked him for some money when in reply he drew a pistol and blew out his brains. Deceased was a prominent member of the United Order of Workmen.

A Case of Starvation.

A case of starvation was reported to the coroner this evening. The victim was a Chinese woman who was found dead in a wretched apartment on Pacific street just above Dupont [illegible] alley. She had outlived her usefulness and her master had left her to perish from want. She presented a horrible appearance when found. She was wasted to a mere skeleton and rats had devoured her features and dug her eyes from the sockets.

Political.

The political canvass is becoming warm and the usual amount of crimination is being indulged in. It is a forlorn hope with the so called Workingman candidate according to general estimation.

HOLLISTER June 11.—A convention met this evening at this place consisting of 2[illegible] members to wit 1 Democrat 1 Independent 6 Republicans and 15 Workingmen called a People's convention and nominated R. Nason of San Felipe as the candidate to represent San Benito county in the constitutional convention. Mr Nason is a Republican and refused to endorse that portion of the platform which demands the abrogation of the pardoning power in the federal and state governments.

An Abductor gets his Deserts

Friday night last an Indian named Rafael abducted Isabel Foote an orphan child 7 or 8 years of age from the house of her sister Mrs Soto near Los Angeles ranch in this county and fled to the mountains with her. Mr Soto obtained a warrant and with a companion went in pursuit and when overtaken on the evening of yesterday the Indian attempted to shoot his pursuers when he was fired upon and killed. The child was recovered.

NEVADA

The Facts about Ophir

VIRGINIA June 11.—This evening's Chronicle publishes the following:

At 10 o'clock this morning two representatives of the Virginia press were admitted to the Ophir mine—Dan de Quille of the Enterprise and D E McCarthy of the Chronicle. They were accompanied by Assistant Superintendent Patton. Going down C & C shaft they passed through the California level to the Ophir mine. The chief point of interest was of course the winze from the 1 900 foot level to the 2 000 foot level winze which the San Francisco Chronicle of Sunday last said had been sunk vertically only 45 feet and had then followed the pitch of ore body at an angle of about 45 degrees to the eastward. This winze starts to cross cut No. 2 a few feet east of the ore vein on the 1 900 foot level. The winze is as straight as a string and this proved what we asserted yesterday in that respect. The winze is closely timbered so that in passing through it nothing is to be seen but Mr Patton who has had immediate supervision of the work gave the following information. At the depth of about 18 feet the winze cut through a body of ore about 7 or 8 feet wide which was pitching eastward at an angle of 30 or 40 degrees. Before the east side of the winze had passed out of this vein the west side cut into another ore body the east wall of which showed about the same angle of inclination as the first cut through, but the west wall did not appear until the depth of about 80 feet had been reached. Then about two feet of porphyry came in on the west side, and it was feared it would cut right across the winze but as downward progress was continued it curved back to the westward and for the last 15 or 20 feet the winze was in ore. On the 2 000 foot level a station about 20 by 40 in size has been excavated and here the size of the ore body was clearly shown. Its course is northeast and southwest and on the north side of this station the whole face is exposed. DeQuille and McCarthy measured the vein carefully and found it to be at this point exactly 39 feet and one inch in width from the clearly marked west wall to the east side of the ore body. There is no east wall in sight. The formation adjoining the ore on the east is a vein of porphyry interspersed with streaks of quartz and hence it is considered quite probable that there is still another body of ore close at hand on that side. The drift southward from the station has already penetrated eight feet and the porphyry taken from the face this morning assays $57 to the ton. Press representatives having expressed a wish to take samples from the face of the vein, Mr Patton said he was willing they should do so. Accordingly a tin bucket was procured and samples were dug from the whole face of the vein and caught in the bucket as they fell. This was all pounded up right there and a small sack full taken by each of the newspaper men. The assay made for the Chronicle by L A Martin & Co resulted as follows: Gold value per ton $120 58, silver $1[illegible] 50, total value per ton $[illegible]4 08. The character of the ore on the 2 000 foot level is green chloride while that on the 1 900 foot level is black sulphuret. This change Mr Patton considered a very favorable indication for permanency. The heat in the lower levels is intolerable, being in one of the 1 900 foot level drifts from 120 to 130 degrees. The drift from the incline is being run on the 2 000 foot level to connect with the winze and a drift has been started from the winze station to meet it. There remain not more than twenty feet to make connection which will probably be done in about ten days.

George Castle of Walla Walla who has for the past six years been making and burning brick at the rate of about 500 000 annually says he can sell 1 000 000 this year easy enough. This goes to show how rapidly the country is building up.

Umatilla Independent: Wheat sown on fresh lands in the Greasewood settlement is now presenting a fine appearance, on lands that were once supposed to be worthless for any other purpose than that of grazing. The settlers are well pleased with their future prospects so much that they have encouraged a number of their friends east to emigrate to this section of country. A number are now on the way who will settle in Umatilla county.

Letter from Little Greasewood, Umatilla county: Election day in our precinct went off in the usual way. Some of the women who were not strong enough to vote remained at home, hoed potatoes and watered stock, drawing water from wells from 40 to 60 feet deep in the old fashioned way, a long rope and an old leaky bucket, and had some nourishment prepared when the stronger sex returned from the toils and hardships of casting the ballot.

LET HAYES ALONE

BEN HILL'S ORGAN WANTS TO HEAR NO MORE OF PUTTING OUT HAYES AND PUTTING IN TILDEN

[Augusta Ga] Chronicle (Ben Hill's Organ.)

With regard to the title of Mr Hayes we feel confident that we but voice the sentiment of nine tenths of the southern people when we say that no attempt should be made to reopen the question that was settled by the last congress. The southern people accepted the settlement in good faith, and they do not wish it disturbed. The only body having power under the constitution to decide the election has rendered a decision and that decision will be loyally respected and obeyed. To attempt to set it aside now would be to threaten the best interests of the country with destruction. We do believe that such a course could not be right or wise from a purely party point of view. We believe that an effort to oust Hayes and Wheeler and inaugurate Tilden and Hendricks would injure instead of benefiting the Democracy and cause them to lose the house of representatives that is to be chosen next November. But whether such a step would injure or benefit the Democratic party is not the issue. The question is would it benefit or injure the country? We do not hesitate to say that we are for the country first and for the Democratic party afterwards. The prosperity of the people is more to be considered than the aggrandizement of politicians however great and distinguished they may be. To reverse the judgment that has been pronounced and abided would be to deal almost a death blow to all the material interests of the country—the interests by which the masses of the people who are not politicians must earn their daily bread. Let the investigation that very properly has been ordered be confined to its legitimate scope and let the frauds which will be revealed be given to the people to pass judgment upon at the ballot box, but let us hear no more of putting out Hayes and putting in Tilden.

SECRET SPRINGS OF THE INVESTIGATION

It is evident that the proceedings in the Potter investigation derive strong support from Republican hostility to Hayes In fact there may be a question whether its greatest strength is not in this particular circumstance. The principal witnesses are those who confess to a connection with irregular or fraudulent practices in the election, and they are moved to such confession by resentment for alleged neglect They say they had bargained to be taken care of, and the bargain has not been kept On the other hand a class of northern Republicans who are deeply dissatisfied with the president's southern policy and his course in relation to the offices, are manifestly seizing this occasion to give him trouble Some, no doubt, secretly hope he will be ousted while others, who would not go so far, entertain expectations that by the course of these proceedings he will be forced to yield to their desires and demands, and come into more harmonious relations with the "stalwarts" of his party When the Potter resolution was adopted in the house Blaine described the situation exactly by remarking that the proportion of Democrats who voted for it while wishing its defeat was equalled by the proportion of Republicans who voted against it while hoping for the worst in regard to Hayes It is certain that there is a large Republican element that would be glad to see Hayes sacrificed and without them there is no probability that this matter would have gone as far as it has, or would ever assume formidable proportions. Butler is the most active man on the committee of investigation.

The New York Times well observes that but for the sweeping allegations of W. E. Chandler and the bitter declarations of Senator Conkling, we might not have heard of the movement in the specific shape presented by the Potter resolution. From them and their confederates the movement derived substantial aid and encouragement They impugned Hayes' title, and the Times remarks they indicated the kind of evidence which they believed to be available in support of their representations respecting Louisiana Persons in their confidence are known to have been engaged in hunting up evidence both in that state and in Florida. Nor have they been alone. More demonstrative than others, they are, nevertheless, merely types of a class of Republicans who hold that the arrangement which ended in the election of Mr. Hayes and the overthrow of Gov. Packard was corrupt, and personally compromised the president. The obvious strength of the argument, that the Louisiana vote for the president and Packard was identical in strength and character, and that the abandonment of one implies conscious weakness on the part of other, has helped this class of Republicans greatly. Grievances more or less personal have been converted into the groundwork of party discontent. All this becomes more apparent as the business proceeds, and it is announced to-day that Butler is undertaking to work up a movement for impeachment. It is not unlikely that the implacable Republicans would go further in this direction than many of the Democrats. For we do not believe the latter really expect to oust Hayes, but that they are pursuing this business chiefly to manufacture campaign capital. But extreme proceedings often go further than those who connive at their beginning intend or desire. Any serious disturbance of the country in consequence of this movement would be sure to recoil disastrously on the Democratic party, and the leaders of the party certainly have judgment enough to know it.

A CLOSE CONTEST.

Between the candidates for the executive office of the state the contest appears to be narrowing down still further; and now it appears likely that there will not be a difference of two dozen votes between them Lake county is reported to have given 156 majority for Thayer, which is 28 more than heretofore conceded. Later advices from Wasco indicate a probability that the majority for Thayer in that county will be considerably more than 200, the figure at which it has been estimated heretofore. We hear of a dispatch last night from Astoria which reports Beekman a majority in Tillamook at 42 instead of 54 In Union the Sentinel claims for Thayer 130 majority, which is ten more than heretofore counted This, however, may not be verified. On the other hand, Marion gives Beekman ten more than we counted in the last table given Making all the corrections here noted, but leaving Wasco at 200 as heretofore reported Beekman would still have 72 majority, with Grant and Curry to hear from. But we have advices from Wasco which make it quite certain that Thayer's majority in that county goes above this figure, but how much we are not able yet to state. Some think it will go as high as 280. It is pretty certain that Grant has given a small Democratic majority. Last night one estimate in Democratic hands made out Thayer 16 ahead, and another showed Beekman 23 ahead. It is close enough to be exciting.

In passing the bill to prohibit further retirement of greenbacks the inflationists in congress obtained the only advantage they have been able to gain this session, and probably before another session arrives the rage for paper inflation will have spent its force The bill fixes the legal tenders at the present amount of $346,000,000, and prescribes that whenever these notes come into the treasury under the operation of the resumption act they shall be immediately reissued This proceeds on the blank nonsense that by mandate of law this fixed amount of legal tender paper may be maintained in circulation at par with gold, when in fact such result does not depend on legislation at all, and will or will not take place, according to circumstances. Should $346,000,000 prove an excessive amount the effort to keep it in circulation at par with gold will not be successful In that event there will be a constant circulation of the notes out of the treasury on the one hand and back into it on the other involving a daily fluctuation in value deranging business and benefiting nobody but the gold gamblers. Redemption of this currency should mean redemption, and not the jugglery of exchange and reissue

The venerable Thurlow Weed is the regular stand-by for the New York reporter in the interviewing business upon every subject under the sun He has been questioned on the Potter resolution and thinks it the alarm gun of a coming revolution that may result in placing Grant at the helm of state or some military dictator He credits Tilden with stirring up the mess and said, he had never seen any man who got presidency on the brain who has able to relinquish the idea It stuck to him in spite of himself, and he could give up anything sooner than that—friends, principle and everything else It was the all absorbing ambition that froze up the source of every warm and liberal feeling and he never knew of any person who got completely cured of the affliction

Dr Talmage uttered a great truth in a recent address when he said There is only one thing that can bring about harmony between the north and the south and that is the funeral of those politicians who want to be president It would be a very expensive thing to bury them but it would not cost this nation one half as much as these prolonged congressional sessions—prolonged to allow the president makers and presidential seekers time to fire off their inflammatory speeches

The Greenback party of Maine held a state convention at Lewiston on the 5th, and nominated Joseph W Smith for governor Solon Chase father of the movement in that state spoke of its small origin and vast progress there, and said that next fall it would control a vote that would smite both parties like a stroke of lightning But he didn't tell the party how even if they should carry the state they were to get greenbacks without working for them

It is not likely there will be any action on the tariff bill this session The house on the 5th by a vote of 134 to 121, struck out the enacting clause which action was fatal to the bill Republicans voted almost solidly for the proposition to strike out, and the protectionist Democrats voted with them

The Chicago Times has information from Washington that the confederate brigadiers of Tennessee are going to issue an address to their constituents urging them not to follow Mr Key's advice and send representatives of a different sort, but to stand loyally by the brigadiers

It cannot but be remarked that every one of the fellows relied upon to prove the alleged frauds at the south has a grievance against the administration Every one of them wanted to be taken care of, and was disappointed Hence these quickened consciences

German surgeons are working very attentively and skillfully on Dr Nobeling the assassin who shot the emperor and then tried to kill himself, and probably will have him in good shape pretty soon for the hangman or headsman

Since the electoral commission is functus officio and Hayes title is res adjudicata, it would seem these learned phrases ought to settle the matter They ought to be as conclusive as Weller's alibi

If the resolution adopted by the house of representatives be adhered to congress will adjourn next Monday

Funeral on Wednesday, 2 P M from the residence of Mr M Zeller on Madison st, near First

In Wiesbaden, Germany June 9 1878 Miss Lizzie Strowbridge aged 16 years, 8 months and 11 days only daughter of Mr and Mrs J M Strowbridge of this city

Six years ago, through the advice of their family physician Mr and Mrs. Strowbridge, with their son and daughter, left their home in Portland for Europe hoping by traveling and change of climate and the best medical treatment that could be had to restore the declining health of their daughter but after a lingering and painful illness, death claimed her and now she has gone to her rest where pain or sorrow will never reach her and where she will wait the coming of the loved ones she has left behind We remember Lizzie as one of the brightest and sweetest of God's precious gifts,—always loving and always lovable

A large circle of friends sympathize with the parents in this their deep affliction

The programme includes several days' sport, a club dinner and grand time generally A meeting of the club for the purpose of selecting a team to compete with the visitors will occur to night at the office of Creighton & Stearns

INSURANCE —Statements having been made that fire insurance companies for which Messrs. Corbitt & Macleay are agents had not made the deposits with the state treasurer which the law requires we were shown yesterday receipts for $150,000 deposited by Messrs. C & M for the three companies which they represent—viz $50 000 each for the Imperial, Northern and Queen These companies are combined for business on this coast and with a joint policy, affording the best possible security to policy holders, which in these times of shaky institutions is of great importance to merchants and business men needing insurance protection

THE WRONG HOUSE —Mr. Herman foreman of Shindler & Chadbourne's workshop coming home late Sunday night, entered by mistake the house of Mr Mike Zeller, on Madison street between First and Second which was next door and exactly like his own. Mr Zeller and his son appeared, and mistaking Herman in the darkness for burglar gave him a most unmerciful beating. The noise of the combat brought Officer Johnson of the police to the scene, and the matter was soon adjusted.

OVERBOARD —A Chinese fisherman who started to cross the river near the boneyard yesterday in a small boat was overturned by the waves of a passing steamboat, and remained struggling in the water some time before he managed to seize the bottom of the boat and raise himself from the water. Some longshoremen who witnessed the accident had started for him, but when they saw he was out of danger they refused to go near him and allowed him to stay on the boat until it drifted ashore

THE HAND SHAKING JUBILEE —The Congregational Ladies Society gave their closing sociable and entertainment at the residence of Mr Geo H Himes. The attendance was good, the refreshments excellent and abundant, and as all were feeling good over the canceling of the church debt, the affair was pleasant throughout. Messrs. Cruzan Creighton and Warren each read a selection and the ladies present furnished good music which was heartily enjoyed.

MRS. BRODECK'S CONDITION —Mrs. H. Brodeck, who was seriously injured about two weeks ago by being thrown from a carriage at Vancouver was brought over to her home in this city yesterday Her injuries are still very painful and she is not entirely out of danger Even if she fully regains her health the bruises and cuts upon her face will leave permanent scars.

ADJUSTED —The adjustment of the fire loss in the matter of the State Investment Insurance Company and Mr L P. W. Quimby, of the American Exchange, was conducted by Mr. B N Barnett Mr Q expresses himself well pleased with the result, and was made additionally happy yesterday by receiving a check in full for the amount

PHOTOGRAPHED —The Linn base ball club which came down two weeks ago and scooped our boys so badly visited Buchtel & Stolte's photograph gallery after the victory and "sat" for a group picture They make a handsome picture and our unpracticed players need scarcely feel ashamed of defeat by such fine specimens of manhood

SOLDIERS DROWNED —J A Sladen, acting assistant adjutant general of this department received a dispatch yesterday from Captain Throckmorton stating that while Company M, 4th Artillery, were coming up the Columbia on Monday evening on board the tug boat Gen Canby, three enlisted men fell overboard and were drowned

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MARKET THEATER.—A company from the Grand Opera House, San Francisco will open at New Market Theater to night in Uncle Tom's Cabin. The company consists of about twenty persons, several of whom have won distinction in the profession. Their version of the piece mentioned is entirely different from the old, and from the success which has rewarded them in San Francisco and Victoria, we feel assured in saying it is a great improvement. Several negroes accompany the troupe and a number more have been engaged here and will appear in the plantation scenes. The scene abounds in wild fun as well as pathos and ought to draw a good audience.

LETTER FROM SALEM

[illegible] LITERARY SOCIETIES.

SALEM June 11 1878

[illegible] the capital city yesterday morning, its purpose being to attend the literary and social festivities attendant [illegible] [illegible] the city of [illegible]

[illegible]

This is commencement week and the usual [illegible] announced to transpire within the walls of the Willamette University, an institution of learning whose reputation is firmly established throughout this state and Washington Territory. [illegible]

Commencement week with its festivities [illegible]

[illegible]

Again have [illegible]

Education is [illegible] the [illegible] passport [illegible] increasing [illegible] friends of education would extend [illegible] less benefactions. [illegible] this week they gather [illegible] receive recognition as children [illegible] nevertheless grateful of her bounty.

A deep and lasting interest attaches to all from [illegible] commencement week. [illegible] with the highest honors of the institution will [illegible] through the mist of intervening years even when the care marks of life have left their impression on the brow and seen [illegible] like a beautiful oasis in the desert where buoyant hopes [illegible] and [illegible] cherished. They will look back and see kind instructors who labored zealously for their advancement and welfare.

They will look back and see [illegible] friends and classmates who shall not forget nor be forgotten for the pure friendship [illegible] will never die. They will look back and remember the great joy experienced on receiving the honors attendant [illegible] labor and thorough application resulting in success of graduation.

They will look back and feel again the pang of sorrow which all will experience at the final separation of teachers, friends, classmates and the old and cherished associations of the past. The parting, the warm clasp of the hand and the tremulously uttered good by will leave a lasting impression on the mind. The incidents which call forth tears dwell longer in the heart than those which provoke laughter.

Commencement week is the beginning of a new life to those who are honored with the parchment—the passport of education. The boy is lost in the man, the maiden becomes the woman. Frivolities must be absorbed in the stern realities of life. The old landmarks of youth pass silently away and exist alone in memory. The chimerical castle building must give place to the higher and more realistic aspiration of the man and woman. The student must awake to the labor of a lifetime. Beautifully and truthfully has the poet said:

Commencement is an ending
When we part perhaps forever
When a last farewell is spoken
And the ties of friendship sever
When our hearts in retrospection
Look back through the misty years
When we toiled to win the honors
That we now receive with tears.

Commencement is an ending
That we marked in time for joy
When duty calls to manhood
We leave behind the boy
We pass the well known portals
With bounds all eye [illegible]
And find just at the portal
That our joys are mixed with tear.

Commencement is an ending
When we leave the world behind—
An ending of life's sorrow
A respite to the mind
We pass out at the portal
When the Angel Death appears
Our College Course is ended
And our friends are shedding tears.

* * * *

Be true to your first trust
Be just through all your years
And your new life's bright commencement
Will be joy unmixed with tears.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

The exercises of commencement week were opened by the baccalaureate sermon at the M E church by Rev C V Anthony of Portland who took his text from Matthew 25th chapter 29th verse: "For unto every one that hath shall be given and he shall have abundance, but from him that hath not shall be taken even that which he hath." The apparent absurdity of the latter portion of this text is dissipated when it is properly construed. The man with one talent who does not use it is really in the condition of the man who has it not. Man has nothing really which he does not himself create because the original comes from God and returns again to God. Everything in the animal world has evolved [illegible] law in which the will of God is [illegible] indicated but man is allowed in a certain sense to create, to originate, and God has thus associated us with Himself and made us in a certain sense copartners. In each man there are various possibilities of development and he may become a painter, a sculptor or an actor but though he has the capabilities he will never win [illegible] unless he [illegible] the oak or the acorn into [illegible]. Men differ according as they pay attention to the law of development. The school, the teacher, the tuition, the books never alone make the scholar. Indeed school reports are hardly ever true indexes. The facts in college stars have never made great men. It is the plodding but invincible spirit of determination that tells in the long run. The oak grows slowly but strong, the mushroom grows in a single night and perishes. But away back of the mind and body is the moral being, the force, power of man—what steam is to the engine, the wind to the vessel at sea. Victor Hugo says there is one thing more sublime than the sea, that is the sky; a thing more sublime than the sky is the inner soul of man. [illegible]

[illegible]

Miner's Song rendered by the chorus glee composed of Messrs Hall, Kelly, Grubbs, Gray and the Misses Chamberlain, Mooros, Scriber and Mc[illegible]. Annals came next on the programme. This was a short historical review of the Alka Society from the date of its organization down to the present. To Mr Charles B Moores, a young and rising attorney of this city and also a charter member of the society was deputed the task of preparing the annals and most satisfactorily was the work done. The sketch was written in Mr Moore's happiest vein—terse, vigorous, racy and replete [illegible]

Why will so many people continue to suffer [illegible] they are bilious. A few doses of [illegible] would remove all obstructions and enable them to enjoy with renewed zest the pleasures they are now compelled to forego.

An Astonishing Fact

A large proportion of the American people are to day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered Liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism take the advice of Druggists and your friends and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

TUESDAY EVENING, June 11, 1878.

Gold in New York, 101.

Legal tenders in Portland buying 99¼, selling par.

Silver coin, 3@3 per cent. discount.

We have nothing specially new in financial matters to report. Business at the banks and on the streets is moderately active, and the preparations for the summer and fall trade are on quite an extensive scale, the belief in a large business being very generally entertained. Money is in good supply for legitimate business purposes while the demand is showing an increase, but not sufficient to advance rates on first class loans.

We are not disposed to ignore the discouraging features which characterize the business situation but we certainly believe local matters are in a better condition than in the city of San Francisco, where, an exchange says, "business dull, times hard, money plentiful, with very little demand, are the characteristics of the city at the present time."

Tonnage.

There are now at this port and in the river eight or ten vessels available for the grain trade, and a number about due. Some of these vessels have been waiting several weeks, and the views of shippers and ship owners are still too far apart to allow of any movement in the freight market. Comparatively very few vessels have yet been taken for new crop loading. Offers are low and vessels loth to accept them. The fact is that the accounts which have gone abroad concerning the enormous crops on the Pacific coast this year have been the means of drawing an immense number of ships hither, and the tonnage market promises to be abundantly supplied. There are now 31 vessels disengaged in port at San Francisco, and 140 more known to be on the way or under charter for the same port. The Commercial Herald, the Pacific coast authority on such matters, in its latest issue, says:

The month of June reveals thus far a dull and sluggish freight market, with but few charters offering in any direction. The spot demand for vessels is insignificant, very little business offering. Wheat charters to the United Kingdom, for June loading, may be quoted at 45@50s U. K. For the continent more is asked according to the time of leading - but we see no disposition abroad to speculate either in wheat or in grain charters. It will be thirty days before the new wheat crop begins to move off freely. As elsewhere stated there is some demand for wheat for forward delivery at $1 65 to relieve vessels from demurrage in July, but farmers are not free sellers upon contract—waiting, waiting for the European war cloud to be dispelled. Tonnage continues to accumulate in our harbor waiting for a free movement of the new grain crop, and which continues to be exceedingly promising.

About the same state of affairs in relation to the wheat market exists here. In fact it has been the rule with farmers of late years to make very few contracts for any great length of time before harvest, and the rule is especially observed when the market is depressed as at present.

English Crops and Markets.

LONDON, June 11.—The Mark Lane Express says: Speaking generally the appearance of all cereals is bulky, but the tendency of so much moisture has been to develop the plant at the expense of the grain producing power, and however favorable the weather may be during the next two months the appearances do not favor the presumption of more than a bare average yield at any rate as regards wheat and barley. The supplies of English wheat have been moderate both in the country markets and Mark Lane. Sales were only practicable at a decline of 1 shilling to 2 shillings per quarter, a reduction which growers have accepted with manifest reluctance. Foreign wheat has been coming to hand freely. Trade having been very dull most of this wheat has gone into store, and a material increase in stocks will probably be apparent at the end of the month. America, Russia and Germany have been the chief sources of supply, and from the two countries first named we shall receive heavy imports for some time. India may also resume her prominent place in the list of grain supplying territories.

As regards trade there is very little change, but there has been rather a stronger feeling as regards foreign wheat at reduced prices of last Monday which are 2 shillings per quarter lower on the week. The inquiry is chiefly from country millers. Sales have been to a great extent in a retail way. Values have declined for all varieties of cereal produce now that the congress is settled upon, and in the opinion of the corn trade the influence of politics has ceased as a factor in the course of prices.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Difficult Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENAN

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a List of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

THE DOCTOR

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.
